

VAZGEN PAHLAVUNI-TADEVOSYAN (VAZO)

Born in 1955 in Gyumri, Armenia. Lives and works in France and Armenia. He studied at the Yerevan Fine Arts College, Armenia during the years 1972-1974. He also studied, as an auditor, at the St Petersburg Fine Arts Academy during the years 1978-1980. He was the initiator, co-founder and general curator of the Gyumri International Biennial of Contemporary Art in 1998.

EXHIBITIONS (SELECTION)

2008 6th Gyumri Biennial of Contemporary Art, Armenia.

2007 Welcome to Lost Paradise, Espace Apollonia, Strasbourg, France.

2006 Vazanparade, Kunstverein, Stuttgart.

Grand Bleu, Gevorkian Gallery, Yerevan, Armenia.

2005 Vodka Perestroika, Galerie Mediatique, Die, France.

Shiryaev Biennial of Contemporary Art, Samara, Russia.

Armenian Lessons, Artcore Gallery, Paris.

2004 The Book of Job, City Museum, Gyumri, Armenia.

2001 Armenian Contemporary Art, Museum of Modern Art, Tehran, Iran.

1996/99 Metapolis 58, public spaces and museums, Gyumri and Yerevan, Armenia.